STARS 2011 Programme Launch

The Launch of the Southern Theatre and Arts Supporters 2011 Programme was held at Waverley Homestead Willunga at twilight on a balmy evening overlooking the golf course on Sunday 20 February. A haunting performance by Indonesian dancer Ade Suharto and guitarist David Kotlowy commenced the proceedings and the large audience gathered on the lawn were mesmerised by the music and dance.

Ade Suharto

A poem about Willunga and the Kuarna people written by Nancy Weisbrodt was read and was an appropriate way to celebrate the performance and the occasion.

L. to R.: Christie Anthony and Carolyn Colling

Special guest speaker Christie Anthony, Creative Director of Adelaide College of the Arts and former director of the Fringe Festival talked about her current role and her experiences with the Fringe and then related how in her opinion STARS are "living a dream because we are a small and very strongly supported Theatre Group with a very enthusiastic committee and members" She then outlined some of the highlights of the year from the Programme.

Greg John Performing Arts co-ordinator at Tatachilla Lutheran College introduced two emerging artists Ben Symonds and Emily Norton who performed two songs. They will be continuing their careers and will be assisted by STARS. Soprano Lisa Cannizarro a recipient of a STARS of Waverley Award last year captured the audience not only with her voice but with her personality and charm. It was a very happy night with guests enjoying canapés and drinks under the STARS.

To become a member of STARS and enjoy the wonderful programme for 2011, call 83238386 for a membership form.

The first cabaret performance for the year will be on Saturday 19 March at 7.30 pm when harpist Hilary O'Neill presents her colourful account of St Patrick's life in flowing verse and traditional Irish song. Don't miss "ST PATRICK WAS A GENTLEMAN "

In the time-honoured tradition of the Irish bard, Hilary O'Neill presents a colourful account of the Saint's life in flowing verse, and traditional Irish song.

Some think St Patrick was put on this world to give us a reason to over-imbibe in green beer once a year. Hilary turns this notion on its head and sweeps her audience on a journey through time to lure history into unfolding its secrets of this extraordinary character.

With her trademark Irish humour and charm, Hilary presents a cabaret of songs and stories direct from the heart of Celtic culture - that magical land inhabited by fairies, goblins, giants and centuries of life's wisdoms.
