Beryl Stutchbury

This is Beryl Stutchbury's first solo exhibition of oil paintings, and demonstrates her journey and exploration of oils which began in the late 1980's as a student at the Adelaide Central School of Art. A successful ten year career in silk screen and air brush wall hangings of Australian scenes gave way to a love of oil painting.

Beryl's strong dynamic use of form, colour and composition is evident in the realistic paintings which combine spontaneity and freedom in the more abstract works creating a unique perspective.

The official opening at Waverley Homestead by the glass artist Cedar Prest will be on Saturday 5th July at 2.00 pm.
The exhibition will continue until the 27th of July.
