Renaming of Noarlunga
Theatre
Tuesday 20th
October
Left to Right:
Hon. John Hill,
Don Hopgood,
Brian Reader

Premier Mike Rann made the following comments before renaming the Noarlunga Theatre the Hopgood Theatre.
"...But before I reveal the new name by which this theatre will become known, I want to take the opportunity to acknowledge the fantastic work of the late Olive Reader. Olive worked tirelessly for many years as part of the Southern Theatre and Arts Supporters (STARS). She was involved in the arts and was well known among arts lovers across the southern Fleurieu Peninsula.
Olive played a vital role in the ongoing support and success of this theatre, that's why, in honour of Olive's hard work and dedication to the arts over a long period, the theatre's green room will be officially renamed as the Olive Reader Green Room..."

STARS committee aims to liaise more closely with Country Arts S.A. who have taken a lease on the Hopgood Theatre.

Showtime at Waverley

Patrick Lim accompanied by Heather Elliott , Saturday 18th October 2008

Patrick Lim presented a wonderful evening last Saturday. His performance, was most ably accompanied by a delightful Heather Elliott on STARS new piano. It was electrifying, sad, funny and definitely well appreciated by the audience.

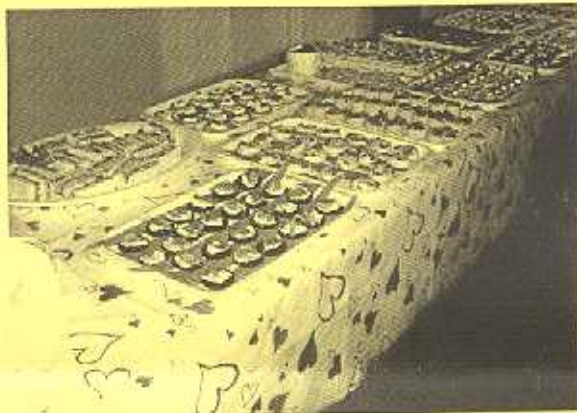

Patrick has that great ability to bring the audience into his world and make them a part of the act, talking to them and certainly on Saturday getting a great response. He started in classical mode, including some pastoral pieces, following this with selections from musicals, cabaret songs; some written especially for him. Of course he included many humorous moments and songs. Like most of the artists who appear at Waverley Homestead he came out to the buffet to answer the many questions that people had, this rounded off yet another truly pleasant evening at Waverley Homestead.

"Just want to say what a marvellous evening we had last night. The place seemed full up with the cabaret style.

Patrick and Heather were absolutely wonderful - diverse range of songs - some hysterically funny and several that were so sad we had tears running down our cheeks.

The food was stunning, such an array of interesting tasty little titbits".

Adelaide entertainer Sandi McMenamin hit the road in 1982 to perform at an International Music Festival in Germany as part of an Australian contingent. Her friend Ron Tremaine said: "Stay away as long as you can find work. Don't get homesick!" She got an agent in London...he was Irish....his wife was Mexican. An early engagement was playing at Macready's Actors Club in Covent Garden. Then the Irish agent set her to Bahrain, Abu Dhabi, Gabon, Cyprus, Bahrain again, London, Cairo, Sweden (Stockholm, Gothenburg, Umea, Karlstad, Sandviken, Linkoping), The Viking Line Ferry between Helsinki and Stockholm, Norway (Voss, Risør, and Kristiansand), then Greece.

And in between Sandi performed in Adelaide, Japan, and Indonesia.

Her repertoire embraces the most "requested songs" from her hundreds of live performances in sixteen countries. Truly a musical magic carpet cabaret trip!

Come on a trip with Sandi and let her piano and lyrics transport you to the many venues and countries which her world journey embraced.
